ABOUT THE FORUM

The Sacramento Estate Planning Council's Estate Planning Forum is the premier Northern California educational conference for professionals in the estate planning field. The one-day conference features nationally known experts from across the country, speaking on issues and concepts that are essential for practitioners who wish to stay up to date. The Estate Planning Forum, now in its fifty-fifth year, is the ideal place to earn continuing education credit in law, accounting and financial planning.

The Estate Planning Forum – which will be a live and virtual forum – continues the tradition of bringing a diversity of topics to cover something for every practitioner. Please join us and 150+ of your peers for the 2026 Estate Planning Forum at McGeorge School of Law in Sacramento.

This year, the Estate Planning Forum will offer up to 6 hours of credit for general California Bar MCLE purposes and specializations in Taxation Law and Estate Planning, Trust and Probate Law. In addition to credit for MCLE, there will be up to 6 hours of CE available for CFPs, CPAs, CLPFs, and CTFAs.

SPONSORSHIP OVERVIEW

As one of Northern California's premier professional organizations, the Sacramento Estate Planning Council (SEPC) provides a forum where diverse professionals share information about the constantly changing field of estate planning. The Council's sterling reputation attracts more than 150 high-level estate planning professionals to its Estate Planning Forum yearly. If you market to attorneys, accountants, financial planners, investment and insurance professionals, valuation experts or professional fiduciaries, sponsorship of the Estate Planning Forum should be considered a critical component of your marketing mix.

Opportunities are structured to provide access to decision-making attendees in a variety of settings and with various levels of branding and degrees of exposure. Sponsorship opportunities include:

Networking Focus:

- Interact with decision makers in the estate planning profession
- Gain access to your target market in an informal setting
- Grant potential clients/customers access to your senior executives as well as product specialists

Marketing Deliverables:

- Recognition in the Estate Planning Forum promotional brochures, sent to estate planning professionals in Northern California
- Maximize your product/service exposure through a complimentary hyperlink from the SEPC website to your home page or a landing page
- Participate in promotional email broadcasts to SEPC members and potential attendees

Day-Of Deliverables:

- Recognition and ad space in the Estate Planning Forum event electronic casebook, which is provided to every attendee
- Recognition of your company as a sponsor and supporter of the event
- Complimentary passes to attend the Forum—valued at $350 each

What is the SEPC Estate Planning Forum?

The Estate Planning Forum will be held on May 21, 2026. The 2026 Forum will be a live and virtual forum, allowing participants and sponsors to access the same high-caliber content with the convenience of attending remotely. This one-day educational program focuses on issues of importance to estate planning practitioners. Industry experts present their perspectives and findings in this dynamic and changing field.

What is the Audience Profile?

A unique offering in the greater Sacramento metropolitan area, the Estate Planning Forum typically attracts estate planning professionals from the Northern California region. Forum attendees are primarily attorneys, accountants, investment and insurance professionals as well as professional fiduciaries.
