

Marsha Laine Dungog is a partner in the private client and tax team at the international law firm, Withers, and is the office managing director of the firm's San Francisco office. She provides US international income, trusts and estate tax planning for high net worth individuals, and family businesses based in the US and abroad with respect to their cross-border assets, investments and activities. Marsha also advises trustees, executors and fiduciaries on international tax exposures and reporting obligations for beneficiaries and heirs of trusts and estates with US connections. Her practice includes US tax planning for foreign investors, founders and entrepreneurs deriving income from US-based sources and operations, as well as tax advisory services for foreign legal, financial and tax advisors on the US taxation of foreign pensions and retirement arrangements, US-based investments and exit strategies for corporate executives, global employees and US persons living abroad.

She is an author and frequent speaker on international tax issues. Marsha is a public arbitrator for the US Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and instructor in US international tax for the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA). She holds a BA from University of the Philippines, a JD from Golden Gate University School of Law, with a certificate of specialization in international law, and a LL.M in Taxation from Georgetown University Law Center.
