

Keith Schiller, Esq., Schiller Law, a PLC, is concluding 48 years in the practice of law. Keith has been a certified specialist in taxation law and estate planning probate and trust law under California State Bar Rules. He has taught tax professionals since 1985, during which he authored 11 different full-day courses for the California CPA Education Foundation, served as a member of the Consulting Group for Leimberg Information Services, Inc. and the Advisory Board for the Trusts and Estates Journal for Bloomberg, BNA. Keith is the author of the extensive textbook, Estate Planning At The Movies—Art of the Estate Tax Return, the second edition and several supplements of which were published by Bloomberg BNA Books. He has authored several dozen nationally published articles, co-taught with the IRS since 1997, and speaks regularly at tax conferences. From personal passion, Keith lobbied passage for the Yosemite License Plate law and chaired the marketing for the Yosemite License Plate... which has raised greater than $45 million for the preservation of Yosemite National Park and California conservation. On behalf of the Yosemite Fund, Keith developed marketing campaigns with the Oakland A's, Coca-Cola, Long's Drug Stores, Safeway, Mountain Light Photography and Yosemite Park and Curry Company to benefit Yosemite National Park. Keith currently resides in Arizona with his wife. Keith is a mentor with SCORE-Southern Arizona for whom he consults as a volunteer with closely-held business owners. He has been requested by SCORE-Arizona to develop a business succession program on behalf of SCORE's clients and closely-held business owners in the State of Arizona.
